Rogers Historical Museum

January-February Calendar of Events

Diverse History of Music in Northwest Arkansas

Closes February 23

Don't miss your opportunity to learn how sounds from various cultures blended into what we listen to today. Music has been a part of life in Arkansas and has been influenced by the European and African roots of the first settlers. Come learn about what makes Ozark music unique and the groups and people from Arkansas who made it big.

Here Comes Santa Claus

Closes January 4

Don't miss your opportunity to learn more about Santa Claus. Santa Claus has not always been viewed as a jolly fellow in a red suit. People across the world have called him by different names and seen him differently. Come learn the history of Santa while taking a guided tour through the Hawkins House.

To Do the Laundry

Opens January 18

Have you heard the terms Blue Monday or Sad Tuesday and wondered where they came from? Come learn about the tradition of washing laundry on Mondays and what changes came to this household chore by the invention of the electric washing machine and dryer.

Kid's Craft Corner: Make a Mini Mandolin

January 18, 1 to 4 p.m.

Come discover your inner musician! Drop-in and learn about the history of the mandolin, including what famous musician from Rogers' past was known for this plucky talent. Make a mandolin-inspired instrument to take home and play a fun tune. Kids of all ages welcome!
